10.12.2001	Shri P. Diwakar, learned counsel for the petitioner. Shri Sanjay K. Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondent No.1. Shri Awadh Tripathi, learned counsel for the respondent No.2. Shri Rajiv Shrivastava, learned Panel Lawyer for the respondent No.3 / State. Heard. The matter relates to grant of Foreign Liquor Licence. By amendment in the relevant rules, the Collector is empowered to grant licence. The petitioner's request on earlier occasion was not considered. According Shri P.Diwakar, simply on the ground that the liquor shop is near a temple and as such it would create some nuisance. According to Shri P. Diwakar such objection is not sustainable, and as much as such objection ~~was~~ taken against the writ petitioner was earlier over-ruled and he was actually granted liquor licence. It appears this aspect can certainly be examined by the Collector, if there is any objection from any quarter. It is for the competent authority

	(Contd. order dated 10.12.2001) -: 2 :- that is the Collector to examine as regards fulfillment of the conditions laid down in this regard. The Collector shall examine each application on its own merit. While doing so, if necessary, the parties should be given opportunity to explain as regards certain objections. It is stated by Shri Sanjay K. Agarwal that for quite some time no licence has been issued. Let the Collector take immediate steps by inviting applications, if necessary, and issue licence in terms of the procedures laid down in this regard, without delay. The petition is accordingly disposed of. C.C. as per rules. Sd/- Chief Justice
